

ADOPT NEW PLAN OF ADMINISTRATION IN JACKSONVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

DUTIES OF SUPERINTENDENT AND HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL ARE UNITED

All Appointments Made By President Rodgers, Members Clampitt and Wells at Session Held Monday Night—Principals
Must Devote Half Time to Teaching—Independence
School to Be Closed—Other Changes In Interest of Economy.

All precedents were swept aside and radical changes made in the school system at a meeting of the Board of Education held Monday night. The precedent which received a solar plexus blow was that which has accorded the right of the president of the board a vote only in the case of a tie. President H. J. Rodgers was in the chair and when the roll call showed Members Clam-pitt and Wells present and Members Imgrund and Rogerson absent, President Rodgers ruled that a quorum was present and that the regular order of business could be carried out. Subsequently this was the order of the evening and the business thus proceeded and included the appointment of all teachers and officers for the ensuing year. The report of the teachers' committee, presented by Dr. Clam-pitt, chairman of the committee, suggested some very important changes. The duties of the principalship of the high school and eighth grade were consolidated with those of the superintendent and to take charge of the grade work in the ward schools, a supervising teacher was appointed.

Some of the Changes.

Charles E. Collins was elected superintendent of the city schools and principal of the central buildings, which means, of course, the high school and 8th grade buildings. Miss Agnes Lusk, who has for some years been principal of the Washington school, was appointed supervising teacher. Miss Helen Carfy was appointed as assistant to Mr. Collins. Miss Laura White was transferred from the 8th grade principalship to that of the Washington school. The duties of coach and athletic director were added to those of instructor in science, thus abolishing one position in the high school faculty. It was determined that hereafter the principals in all of the ward schools shall teach half of the time and devote the remaining time to supervisory work. It was determined to abandon the Independence school in the first ward and to care for the pupils who have been attending there, at the Jefferson building in the same ward.

The teaching force in the ward schools was reduced in several instances, the general purpose of the whole list of changes being to reduce expenses and at the same time to increase salaries in certain instances. Dr. Clam-pitt presented a table of figures to substantiate his claim that the plan adopted, while permitting increases in salaries of $5,115, will still result in a saving to the city of $6,341. In addition to other positions abolished the report recommended that the services of the professional nurse be dispensed with.

Savings Proposed.

Dr. Clam-pitt, in presenting the report of the teachers' committee went on to say that the schedule of salaries adopted last year meant increases for certain teachers this year and that under that plan, with the teaching force constituted as in the past, the cost for salaries would be $70,428. With the reduced teaching force and the consolidation of duties according to the plan proposed, the salaries would be $64,987. He expressed regret that through the change it was necessary to dispense with the service of some teachers, but said that to make advances and to pay the larger salaries and still hold the school expenses within bounds, that the changes suggested were demanded. Dr. Clam-pitt then explained in further detail the plan proposed and the complete report of the committee is printed herewith. Dr. Clam-pitt moved the adoption of the report and Member Wells said that he had examined the question thoroughly and believed that the suggestions made were for the best interest of the schools and he therefore offered a second to the motion. President Rodgers, put the motion, Dr. Clam-pitt and Mr. Wells voted in the affirmative and then President Rodgers said that assuming that Mr. Imgrund and Mr. Rogerson would vote in the negative that he would cast an affirmative vote and he declared the motion duly carried and in effect.

Pupils Must Appear on Program.
Early in the session Richard Reynolds, on behalf of the High School seniors asked the board to reconsider their action in which they had decided that the commencement exercises should be held in the eighth grade building instead of the Opera House. He said that the pupils did not believe that there was nearly enough room in the David Prince auditorium to accommodate their friends. There are sixty-eight members of the senior class and he said that, even if they invited only their relatives there would not be enough seats. Dr. Clam-pitt, Mr. Wells and President Rodgers were all of the opinion that it would be better to have the exercises at the school building and to limit the number of invitations to the seating capacity. About seven hundred and fifty can be cared for there. Floyd Williamson, also speaking for the senior class, asked the board to arrange for a speaker from outside the city instead of having members of the class make essays or orations. The members of the board and the president were of the opinion that the public would much prefer to hear the students themselves and this was the order. Superintendent Collins said that the rule is that the three highest pupils shall speak and that three others shall be chosen by the class with the sanction of the board. The three pupils having the highest mark are Frank Merrill, Helen Struck and Mary Moxon. Superintendent Collins and Principal Stone were instructed to confer with the class concerning the selection of the other speakers.

Approved bills were ordered paid when funds are available. All bills were approved by Dr. Clam-pitt and Mr. Wells and Mr. Pyatt asked the members of the board with reference to the drawing of warrants, stating that the law required the signature of three members of the board. President Rodgers said, in that event, that it would be necessary to add the warrants for the third signature.

Under the head of new business Dr. Clam-pitt then presented the report of the teachers' committee. In referring to the closing of the Independence school he said that there had been but thirty-one pupils there last year and he was of the opinion that quite a number of them were really under school age. Dr. Clam-pitt nominated Charles E. Collins as superintendent of schools and this motion received a second from Mr. Wells. President Rodgers voted with the members and declared the motion carried.

Dr. Clam-pitt suggested that the manual training and domestic science teachers be asked to file reports before the close of the year, showing the expenditures in their departments. This led to some discussion of general expenditures and President Rodgers expressed the belief that some plan should be devised in estimating the general needs of all the schools in advance and buying these supplies in bulk. He thought that some requisition system could be used in this connection and the expenses thus materially reduced. The members of the board were of like opinion.

Mr. Collins Ready to Serve.

Mr. Collins, in thanking the board for appointing him to his position, said that he would give all there was in him to the service and that he had but one desire and that to develop the school system in Jacksonville in the best possible way. He said that in the main he had found the teaching force entirely willing to work with him and that in most instances he had occasion to caution teachers not to overwork. There were a few in the teaching force, he said, who did not enter quite heartily into the spirit of the work. He thought that either the chairman of the teachers' committee or he himself, should speak to the teachers along the line of the work proposed and seek for their hearty co-operation.

This led to an expression from Dr. Clam-pitt that all such matters could be handled by the superintendent and that it was his desire to give the superintendent full authority with reference to all teaching questions as he should be held responsible for the standard of work done. Pres. Rodgers said he certainly believed that the officers of the school should be held responsible for the work done and that members of the board should have nothing to do with those questions which properly belonged to the teachers, principals and superintendent in their relations as such. He said that the thing to do was to remove the officers if they did not do the right kind of work and suggested that in this particular school affairs should be managed like those of a corporation. No business institution would develop along desirable lines, if the employees were in the habit of going over the heads of officers in an effort to discuss matters with the directors, and he said

WOULD GRANT HOME RULE IN MATTER OF CLOSING

NEW BILL WOULD PRACTICALLY REPEAL STATEWIDE SUNDAY LAW

Liberal Committee of House Introduce Measure—House Holds on Hour's Session and Adjourns Until This Afternoon.

Springfield, Ill., May 3.—Home rule in the matter of Sunday saloon closing will be granted to municipalities under the provisions of a bill introduced in the lower house of the legislature today by the liberal committee of that body. The committee's report was presented by Representative Thomas Curran of Chicago, leader of the "wets."

The measure would practically repeal the present statewide Sunday closing law by allowing city councils and boards of trustees of incorporated towns and villages to grant Sunday licenses to saloons after the citizens had adopted the home rule act by a referendum vote. The question of placing Sunday closing in the hands of the city council could be brought to a vote in any town upon petition of the registered voters.

Members of the legislature who closely examined the bill tonight were of the opinion that it might allow city councils to grant saloon licenses in anti-saloon territory and that it might repeal by implication the present local option laws. The reason for this belief was the wording of this section of the bill which extends to city councils, "exclusively authority to license saloons and to prohibit the sale of liquors on all days including Sunday."

To Push Only Two Bills.
This measure and the bill limiting the granting of saloon license to American citizens will be the only measures which will be pushed by the "wets" Wednesday when the house will act on all wet and dry bills which have been introduced. The drys tonight announced that they will concentrate their efforts to obtain the passage of the bill which would create a "five mile zone" around the naval training station at Lake Bluffs. Leaders of the drys said that probably no effort will be made to take the county option bill to a vote in the house.

The house held an hour's session this evening adjourning at 6:40 p. m., until 1 p. m., tomorrow when another effort will be made by Speaker Shannon to call up the reconsideration of the vote by which the amending clause resolution was defeated.

NON-COMMITTAL VERDICT IS RETURNED BY CORONER'S JURY

BANNING, Cal., May 3.—A non-committal verdict was rendered today by the coroner's jury which investigated the death of Peter Glennon, the ranch foreman killed in a battle with Rev. Paul Reinfels, an invader Catholic priest, and the latter's nurse, Mrs. Clara Sherrer, Friday night in a cabin near Palm Springs, a health resort in the desert.

Death was due, the verdict read, "to a gunshot wound in the neck received by said Glennon while trying to murder one Clara Sherrer and one Paul Reinfels and from the evidence adduced the jury is unable to determine whether said shot was fired by Paul Reinfels or by the deceased."

This verdict was rendered by the jury after ten minutes consideration of the testimony of Mrs. Sherrer and the deposition of the priest.

AMERICAN AVIATOR IS KILLED IN TEST FLIGHT IN MEXICO

NEW YORK, May 3.—Jack Mays of San Francisco, was killed yesterday at Aguas Calientes in making a test flight of one of the aeroplanes purchased for the Villa army according to a telegram from J. S. Berger of Chicago, who is manager of the Villa Aerial corps.

It was stated that Mays was flying at the rate of sixty miles when the biplane he was driving struck a building, crushing the aviator's head and shoulders. The body is being shipped to the border here.

General Villa has several aircraft, nearly all of which are manned by Americans. It has been announced that the machines would be used only for scout duty and not for bomb dropping.

BOMB DAMAGES HALL.

New York, May 3.—A powerful dynamite bomb exploded in the Bronx borough hall tonight, badly damaging that building only a short time before a meeting. No one was injured.

VISITING RELATIVES HERE.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. White of New York City are guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Cox, 639 South Diamond street. Mr. White expects to go to Chicago Wednesday and upon his return he and his wife will go to San Francisco. While in the west they will visit Mrs. White's mother in Blaine, Washington.

Mrs. Sarah Whorton and daughter Cella of Griggsville were in the city Monday.

Mrs. Ernest E. Grassly has returned from a visit in Springfield and Edinburg.

War News Summarized

Another big battle has been fought and a great victory over the Russians in the Carpathians is chronicled officially by both the German and Austrian war offices. As the Russians occupied strongly fortified positions in west Galicia, it is beyond question that the losses on both sides have been very heavy. The Austro-Germans report that they captured 8,000 Russians and took many guns and much war material.

The western war zone remains comparatively quiet, only two German attacks being reported, one against the British troops near Ypres and the other against the French in the forest of Leperet. Both of these were repulsed.

The Dardanelles operations are reported by Athens, on the authority of information from different sources, to be developing favorably for the allies who are said to have occupied several villages.

Italian merchants, manufacturers and professional men are leaving Austria-Hungary on the recommendation of the Italian consuls in that country. Some of the Italians arriving at Udine, Italy, report having undergone insults and persecutions. They also say there is great military activity by the Austrians along the frontier.

AWAIT OFFICIAL PROBE OF WRECKING OF AMERICAN STEAMER

Bryan to Ask for Complete Report by Consul and Will Request Girard to Make Inquiry.

Washington, May 3.—Pending an official investigation of the circumstances of the wrecking of the American Steamer Guilford in the English channel, the United States government will defer diplomatic representations as well as any pronouncement of policy.

Two messages were received today from American consul Stevens at Plymouth, England, reporting that the Guilford was torpedoed off the Scilly Islands Saturday and that her captain died of heart failure and two members of the crew were drowned.

Secretary Bryan called attention to the fact that the source of his authority was not given by Consul Stevens and that the messages read as if he was reporting on information he had heard rather than facts officially learned.

Mr. Bryan said he would ask for a thorough and complete report from the American consul and would request Mr. Gerard at Berlin to make an inquiry. The secretary announced that he did not wish to make any predictions as to the course of the American government's policy until all the facts were in its possession.

Officials were careful not to take for granted the truth of reports that a German torpedo struck the Guilford. Until there is definite proof, no statement bearing on the delicate point of responsibility was deemed expedient.

FUNERAL OF LINCOLN FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Journal Would be Pleased to Receive Word From Those Who Attended.

Today, a May 4, marks the fiftieth anniversary of the burial of Lincoln in Springfield. Obediences were held in Washington some two weeks before and stops were made from time to time as the train which bore the president's body moved westward. Final funeral services were held in Springfield on the date mentioned and among the large numbers who attended were many from Jacksonville and vicinity. A number of these are yet living and until the end of their days they will retain a clear recollection of that memorable day fifty years ago. The Journal would be pleased to hear from those who attended Lincoln's funeral in Springfield and requests that all such send communications of fifty to one hundred word giving their impressions of the final service. Those who do not feel inclined to write at such length may send their names or if they prefer give notice of their attendance by telephone.

Printed by the Journal company and admitted that his company, The Argus company, had actually struck off the book. The same witness told of the Journal company being paid fifteen per cent commission upon orders by The Argus company.

City officials and former city official of Albany also were on stand. One identified official records which showed that the J. B. Lyon company was given a contract over three other concerns which bid lower. In fact the record showed the Journal company was next to the highest bidder. The former city clerk of Albany said he gave orders to the Journal company because he knew and was friendly with people there, including Mr. Barnes.

None of the witnesses testified that he had ever had any business dealings with Mr. Barnes personally or that Mr. Barnes had ever solicited printing.

Two former Albany correspondents for New York newspapers testified to conversations which they said they had with Mr. Barnes. The first, Jacob J. Dickinson of Washington, D. C., swore that Mr. Barnes in discussing Governor Hughes and race track legislation had said that Governor Hughes had told him he favored the measure as a matter of conscience. The witness quoted Mr. Barnes, that there was no common ground between them when the issue was between conscience and votes.

Correspondent Testifies.
Walter T. Arnold of New York, the second correspondent, swore that Mr. Barnes had told him in 1911 he had received a message from Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall that a direct primaries bill then before the legislature was likely to pass unless the Republicans were to unite with the Democrats and that the "Tammany leader had asked the plaintiff's help."

Mr. and Mrs. George Dyer of Eldred were in the city Monday, their daughter undergoing an operation for appendicitis at Passavant hospital.

William Lawson who was so seriously injured in a saw mill accident in Scott county several weeks ago was able to leave Passavant hospital Monday and returned to his home in Manchester.

Miss Lillian Havenhill, who came home from Bloomington a few days ago for a visit with home folk, is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Havenhill, 706 West State street.

Ernest Jones is ill at his home on North Sandy street.
Mary Baze, aged 10 years, who has been a patient at Passavant hospital for the past month was able to return to her home in Hillview with her father Monday.

T. R. AND BARNES TO TESTIFY TODAY

It Is Not Considered Likely that Either Will Consume Much Time

TESTIMONY IS VARIED

Evidence Regarding Printing in Albany Is Given—City Officials of Capital Are on Stand

IDENTIFY OFFICIAL RECORDS

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 3.—Theodore Roosevelt again will go upon the witness stand in the supreme court here tomorrow and the prospects tonight were that William Barnes would either precede or follow him. Plans to these ends were made today by counsel for the respective principals in Mr. Barnes' libel suit, after many witnesses had testified for the defense. It was not considered likely that either the former president or the former chairman of the Republican state committee would testify for any continued period.

Instructed to Bring Books.
Mr. Barnes was actually called as a witness for the defense today after Franklin Gray, secretary and treasurer of the Albany Journal company, had sworn books of the corporation which he was asked about were in the possession of the plaintiff. Mr. Barnes was to testify in regard to how much stock he owned in the Journal company and possibly other things. He was on his way to the witness chair when Justice William S. Andrews presiding, suggested that it might be a good idea to have Mr. Barnes get the books in question, which counsel said would be produced in court tomorrow. The books were brought in today by Edward T. Platt, son of the former senator.

Mr. Platt wanted the court and counsel to agree that if any of the three hundred or more letters in his possession went into the record all should go in. Counsel for Colonel Roosevelt, however, protested at that and Mr. Platt left the room with a legal representative of each principal. Outside, the Roosevelt attorney picked twelve or fourteen letters he thought might be of possible value to the defendant. These letters will be produced when they are asked for tomorrow.

Testimony Is Varied.
The testimony given today was of many kinds. There was evidence regarding printing in Albany. One witness said the plant of the Albany Journal contained a job press. He admitted, however, that it was operated with a "single kicker" furnishing the motive power. Another witness identified books printed for the city of Albany bearing the line "Printed by the Journal company" and admitted that his company, The Argus company, had actually struck off the book. The same witness told of the Journal company being paid fifteen per cent commission upon orders by The Argus company.

City officials and former city official of Albany also were on stand. One identified official records which showed that the J. B. Lyon company was given a contract over three other concerns which bid lower. In fact the record showed the Journal company was next to the highest bidder. The former city clerk of Albany said he gave orders to the Journal company because he knew and was friendly with people there, including Mr. Barnes.

PRECEDENTS GO AND NEW SCHOOL PLANS COME

The action taken by President Rodgers and members Clampt, and Wells of the Board of Education in appointing all officers and teachers for the ensuing year, will doubtless come as a great surprise to Members Imgrund and Rogerson of the board, who are out of the city. Mr. Rogerson has not yet returned from Dakota and Mr. Imgrund, it was stated last night, had been summoned unexpectedly to Chicago. Pres. Rodgers in ruling that two members of the board with the president constituted a quorum smashed all precedent and he gave a still further blow to precedent when he declared that the vote of the presiding officer could be cast, even though a tie did not actually exist. He took the ground that it was imperative for the board to act upon the question of officers and teachers and that the absence of two members should not interfere with this work. On each roll call, when the members present voted affirmatively the president said that he would assume that the absent members would vote in the negative and that in the case of a tie thus resulting he would cast the deciding vote in favor of the affirmative.

The action and ruling were contrary to all the past history of board transactions, and according to the commonly accepted belief, not in accord with charter provisions. It, however, is not for the province of a newspaper, at this time, to pass upon the legality of the board's action Monday night. Certain it is, that the burden is now upon the absent members, and if they are displeased by the action taken by the board, and think it illegal, it is up to them to take steps to prove their point and to undo the acts of Monday night. They will maintain, possibly, that the board did not act legally, and further, that they do not consider they were treated fairly to have such important matters passed upon in their absence. Those present, however, will maintain that the end of the school year is approaching and that the time had fully arrived for making the appointments, as a matter of justice to the teachers, and for the best interests of the school. It was stated, also, last night, that Mr. Imgrund, when sending information that he must be away, asked that the appointments be deferred, but said if it was thought necessary, to go ahead.

The changes embodied in the report made by Dr. Clampt are radical indeed, and it is impossible at this time to tell what the general effect will be. The report shows clearly, that a great deal of time and thought has been spent upon the proposition, but only a tryout of the plan can furnish convincing proof as to its wisdom. There is no doubt but that the purpose of a committee in presenting the plan is to add to the efficiency of the school system, and at the same time to reduce the cost. In the efforts toward economy the board will certainly receive the commendation of the public, and no doubt the school teachers and patrons of the schools will gladly join with the board in the desire to see the new plan succeed as completely as its sponsors hope. Mr. Collins, as superintendent during the past year, has shown a marked disposition, for hard earnest work and has certainly been depended upon to enter with enthusiasm into developing the school work in accordance with the details of the new plan or operation of which he is to be such an important part.

IS A MELTING POT FOR MANY EMOTIONS

"The Spoilers" Will be Shown at Scott's Today—A Nine Reel Film of Rex Beach's Romance.

With William Farnum as Glenister, Kathryn Williams, as Cherry Malotte, the Alaskan dance hall artist, Thomas Santschi as McNamara, and Bessie Eytan as Helen Chester—with such stars as these playing the leading parts in "The Spoilers," the famed Rex Beach novel of the Alaska Northland, with such characters as Dextery, the "Broncho Kid," Slap Jack, and the corrupted Judge all played to perfection, it is not surprising that audiences in theaters like the new Strand in New York and the Studebaker in Chicago, sit spellbound through the two hours it takes to the photo-play. The scenes are so vivid, the action so strong, the picturing of the passions of men so true, that one forgets he is watching a picture play. He feels he is right in the streets of Nome, Alaska living, breathing, absorbing the life and atmosphere of the turbulent days of the gold miners themselves.

This brilliant romance of the gold fields of our great northwest is strong in sentiment, is steeped in fierce primitive passions, inspired by insidious evils that invest the closing coils of a great conspiracy to rob honest toil of its golden fruit. It braves privations with death ever imminent, day by day, and through the long night, of the domain of the Midnight Sun. These strong elements, in the melting pot of this romance, fuse to make the great work intense, picturesque and potential beyond compare, as far as current production of motion is concerned. This great play will be seen at Scott's today and tomorrow.

DR. CLAMPT'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

It has been said recently that the chairman of the Teachers' Committee was very extravagant in his ideas as a member of the board.

He desires to make it clear that the records will show that the limit for taxes for general expenses of the board of education has been levied for the past fifteen years and the only excess in school taxes has been due, when necessary to increase the building capacity.

He is a firm believer in modern education and in order to accomplish and give to the student that which he deserves and fit him for life's battles it is necessary to have the proper equipments. With the buildings and equipments ready for operation then it becomes necessary to furnish the operators for the machinery.

The Public School system of our city should be run on business principles and with an outlay of several hundred thousand dollars and yearly expenditure of seventy-five thousand dollars, it is very important to keep in touch with every department, and whenever the material becomes wanting, and the operator partly at leisure, with the machinery still running it is the sworn duty of the directors or members of the board of education to make such necessary changes that will enable the system to continue without loss to the community, detriment to the schools or hindrance to the pupil and keeping the expenses within the income.

By reduction of forces, enlarging classes, more departmental work, to save expenses and materially benefit the schools is not sufficient nor justifiable cause for any objection being made unless from personal and selfish motive.

A Vital Question.

The employment of teachers and the adjustment of salaries is a problem that is of vital interest and of great importance, both to the teacher and the tax payer. From the teachers' point of view it is essential owing to the extra high cost of living and various other requirements, to know that her remuneration is ample to justify her time and services to the board of education. It is of great importance to the tax payer from the fact that ninety per cent (90%) of the available school funds derived from taxes for general expenses are paid as salaries to teachers, consequently are they getting value received.

The school board have endeavored to keep in line with the progress of the age and high ideals of modern education. Vast strides of new development, courses of study undergoing much required modifications, which necessitates a well equipped school together with a teaching force that are up to the standard and equal to the demands of the day on account of the above conditions.

The board of education last year adopted a schedule as a basis for teachers' salaries, to encourage those that desired to take advantage, and devote part of their vacation during the summer, attending Normal School, Universities or by taking some special course of study in departmental work that the schools might profit thereby as well as themselves.

During the past year your committee, with the Supt. have very closely followed the various conditions of our schools and are of the opinion that certain re-adjustments can be made whereby the schools can be greatly benefited, more active work accomplished, more personal teaching by those that heretofore have been merely supervisors. The teachers who are elected by the board of education are required to teach in any department of the public schools which in the judgment of the board and the Supt., the interests of the schools may demand.

Lower Expense Necessary.

The course to be pursued the coming school year as recommended by your committee has had our most careful consideration and if we are to continue along the line of educational work as planned and adopted to keep up the standard of our present school system, and at the same time be able to compensate the teacher the same as she could demand from other places, then, it is necessary that this board take some action that will lessen our expenses and at the same time materially increase the teachers' salary. While it is with much regret and reluctance on our part that some places will have to be dispensed with, and general transfers be made which possibly may not be pleasing to those personally interested, yet your committee feels that their first duty is to the interest of the school and tax payer. Those teachers that are effected by the transfer are not changed because of any lack of efficiency, but selected because of their fitness to the work where vacancies occur.

The dispensing of the principalship of the High school is no reflection upon Mr. Stone but is clearly and only for the purpose of decreasing the administration force and thereby reducing expenses. Professor Stone who has filled that position during the past year has proven himself worthy of consideration and it is with regret that interference with our relations are recommended.

The dispensing of the principalship of the David Prince school is on reflection upon Miss White, as the committee recommends that Miss White be made the principal of the Washington school at the same salary that she would receive had she remained principal of the David Prince school. However, this change does result in the saving to the tax payer of a thousand and six dollars ($1,906.00).

Since Miss Lusk will have her entire time to supervise the grade work and Miss Cafky, almost her entire time to supervise the high school work, it will leave much of Mr. Collins' time to look after the business interest and discipline of the schools.

The board of education, during the past year have been at a very great expense in fitting up the new eighth grade building, to be able to meet the conditions as they existed, together with other necessary emergencies that have come up from time to time.

NEW COUNCIL HAS ASSUMED DUTIES

FIRST SESSION UNDER PRESENT REGIME HELD MONDAY.

Mayor Rodgers and Ex-Mayor Davis Heard in Brief Speeches—Assignment of Departments Announced—Appointments Come Later.

The new city council began duty Monday morning and their first session was just eighteen minutes in duration. There was some brief speech-making and the most important action taken was in the matter of assignments. Mayor Rodgers announced the heads of the departments, stating that as mayor according to law he became the head of the department of public affairs. The other commissioners will have duties as follows: accounts and finances, William F. Widmayer; public health and safety, J. Edgar Martin; streets and public improvements, Jerry Cox; public property, Joshua Vasconcellos. There was quite an assemblage of citizens at the council session, including both men and women. The table at which the council sat was bedecked with flowers. The Chamber of Commerce had sent a floral design, encircling the motto of "Good Luck"; there was also a huge basket sent by Charles B. Graft and Otto F. Buffe, and still another by the Hofmann Floral company.

Just a few minutes before 10 o'clock George W. Davis, retiring mayor, who was seated at the right hand of Mr. Rodgers, arose and handed the gavel to his successor, speaking very briefly. On behalf of all the members of the old council, Mr. Davis wished good luck and God-speed to their successors and hoped that the new officers would profit by their experiences and be successful in every way in accomplishing their aims and purposes. He also expressed the hope that they would have a heartier support from the people than had been accorded the old officers.

Mr. Rodgers spoke very briefly, accepting on behalf of the council the felicitations of the retiring officers. He said that the old council undoubtedly had met with many difficulties, but that their record showed many good things done in the interest of the city. He said that it was the hope of the new council to work harmoniously, and that while they expected that not everybody would be pleased by all their acts, that they would do the very best they could on behalf of the public and that it was their intention to serve the people as a whole without regard to nationality, creed or any outside influence.

President John J. Reeve of the Chamber of Commerce, extended greetings from that organization and said that the mayor and commissioners could rest assured of their hearty support. He said that by working together that the best interests of the city would be served and that the Chamber of Commerce had only one desire and that was to aid the administration whenever their support and co-operation was desired. In announcing the department heads, Mayor Rodgers said that the members of the council in conferring upon this matter and reaching an agreement, had endeavored to put aside all personal feeling and had agreed on a program for department heads which they all believed would result in the best service for the city. His announcement was as already indicated: Department of finances, W. F. Widmayer; health and safety, J. Edgar Martin; streets and highways, Jerry Cox; public property, Joshua Vasconcellos.

The mayor said that because of his mechanical skill and training Mr. Vasconcellos had been considered as the best man for the department of public property, which includes the conduct of the water and light departments. Mr. Widmayer, seconded by Mr. Cox, made a motion that the assignments as announced be the order of the council, and that was carried by unanimous vote. At this point Mayor Rodgers handed the old gavel to Mayor Davis and said that the retiring official might have it as a memento of his service. The gavel is understood has been used in the city hall for more than fifteen years, as it was originally presented to Mayor S. A. Fairbank.

Mayor Rodgers said that it was the plan of the council to inspect some of the city property in the afternoon. He said that in the matter of appointments the public need not look for any great upheaval and that for the present there would be no changes. He intimated further that when changes are made that they will be such as the council feels are dictated by the efficiency of the appointee and in the line of justice. He said further that it will be the desire at all times of the council to hear complaints of all citizens which have any reference to public interest, but that this would not include matters of merely a personal nature. On motion of Mr. Widmayer, seconded by Mr. Martin, the council then adjourned.

Inspected City Property.
Monday afternoon all the members of the new council, together with most of the retiring council, traveling in Mayor Rodgers' and Commissioner Martin's cars, visited the north side pumping station, the south side plant, and the city reservoir. It was the intention to go to the cemeteries, but as the roads were not in good condition that visit was deferred. It is evidently the intention of the commissioners to familiarize themselves somewhat with the condition of city property and with the duties of their respective departments before making any appointments.

Reports of Officers.
The report of Felix E. Farrell, city treasurer, showed a balance in the general fund May 1st of $7,423.61.

The report of J. M. Coons, Justice of the Peace, showed fines collected $10,220; city costs, $10; J. P. $15.40.

The report from the water department showed total collections for the month of $2,718.46. This total includes $2,634.32 water rent; $40 for meters sold, and $44.14 from miscellaneous sources.

George P. Davis, chief of police, reported the number of arrests in April as thirteen. Of these ten were city cases and three state cases. The amount of fines collected, $35.60.

R. L. Pyatt, city clerk, reported collections as follows: through the city clerk's office, $337.50; Jacksonville cemetery, lots sold etc., $159.25; Diamond Grove cemetery, lots sold etc., $223.90.

Phil Grant, sexton of Diamond Grove cemetery, reported eleven graves made during the month of April.

Allen M. King, health warden, reported total deaths in April 41. These are divided as follows, 14 in the first ward, 5 in the second ward, 4 in the third ward and 18 in the fourth ward. The ages were: under 1, two; from 1 to 5, five; from 5 to 20, four; from 20 to 50, ten; from 50 to 70, eleven, and over 70, twelve. Contagious diseases: measles, 69; chicken pox, 2; whooping cough, 2; tuberculosis, 1.

Miss Emma Weller, city matron, reported the cases of five delinquent girls that she had investigated and taken the necessary action. She also reported a case of a neglected infant that she had investigated. Mention was made also of one young girl for whom application had been made in the juvenile court for the appointment of a guardian.

CELEBRATES OWN CANAL

Formal Opening of Waterway 500 Miles Long in Northwest.

Lewiston, Idaho, May 3. A week of celebrations extending from Lewiston to Astoria began here today, in honor of the formal opening of the new Celilo-The Dalles Canal, which ushers in a new era in the Northwest, by furnishing the connecting link for uninterrupted water navigation from the Pacific Ocean five hundred miles inland.

The opening celebration, staged here today, was a pageant depicting the historical development of the Columbia River country, featuring the growth of the northwestern states from the time of the discovery of the Columbia River by Capt. Robert Gray, the coming of the explorers, the missionaries, industry and farming, and the growth to present conditions. Each day celebrations are scheduled, until Saturday. The state officials of Oregon, Idaho and Washington, city and town officials along the new waterway, and a committee from Congress will be guests of honor of the commercial and civic organizations who are conducting the gala events.

In honor of the canal opening, May 10 has been named "Columbia River" day at the San Francisco exposition, that being the anniversary of the discovery of the river by Captain Gray.

The exercises formally opening the new canal to navigation will be held on Wednesday at The Dalles and Big Eddy, Oregon. United States Senators Pittman of Nevada, Borah and Brady of Idaho, Jones and Poinsett of Washington, Chamberlain and Lane of Oregon, and many Congressmen from the northwest have promised to attend. Captain E. W. Baughman of Moscow, Idaho, 80 years old, who took the first steamboat to Lewiston, will be admiral of the fleet that will pass through the canal on the opening day. The fleet of steamers will leave Lewiston tonight, and after passing through the Canal, take part in the celebrations on the Columbia River all the way to Astoria, Ore.

IN DYER'S COURT.

George Mullins was arrested by Deputy Sheriff G. L. Stice on a state warrant sworn out by a detective of the Burlington road charging Mullins with jumping on and off moving trains, or as generally known, "flipping cars". The young man pleaded guilty and was by Justice Evers fined $3 and costs.

The charge of malicious mischief against Mullins and upon which he was under bond to appear for hearing, was dismissed.

Woman's World

Queen Amelie of Portugal an Enthusiastic Red Cross Worker.

EX-QUEEN AMELIE OF PORTUGAL.

One of the most enthusiastic Red Cross workers in England is ex-Queen Amelie of Portugal, who is a princess of the exiled royal family of France. Her great grandfather was Louis Philippe, the citizen king of France, whose reign came to a violent end in 1848. Her father, the Comte de Paris, was heir to the throne, and her eldest brother, the Duc de Orleans, is known as the French pretender.

Queen Amelie, who has resided in England since her son, ex-King Manuel, lost the throne of Portugal, is a clever and amiable woman. She has studied nursing and holds a degree in medicine.

As soon as the present war broke out she offered her services to France, as did her two brothers also. While thanking them for the offer, the French government suggested that they co-operate with the English, as there is a law that forbids sons of former royal houses to return to France.

STIFFENING BRISTLES.

Treatment With Ammonia and Salt Restores Their Elasticity.

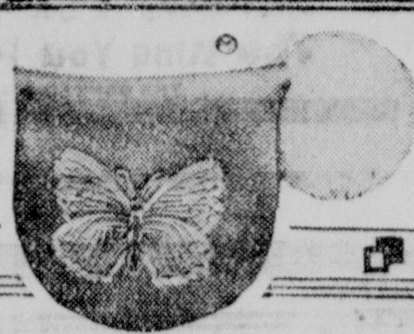

Bristles that have lost their stiffness may be restored by washing them in hot water to which has been added about two teaspoonfuls of ammonia, then dipping them in water to which salt has been added. Dry the brush in the open air with the bristles up.

Washing the brush in warm water to which a little ammonia has been added is an effective way of cleansing a brush and one that is not likely to make the bristles too soft. It is not necessary to immerse the whole brush; merely hold the bristles below the surface of the water, and you will be surprised at the ease with which it will be cleansed of grease and dust.

Another excellent method for the weekly cleaning and one which probably will not wear the brush out so quickly is the use of dry bran. Rub the bran in thoroughly, afterward combing and shaking it out. It will remove all grease and will leave the bristles firm. This should be done at least once a week.

HAND TOOLED LEATHER.

Hand tooled leather is very popular this season. It is used for matinee bags, hand bags and purses. Two dainty coin purses of the leather are

Chamois leather is rather expensive, so that it is just as well to know how to clean it. Put it in a weak solution of soda into which you have thrown some grated soap. Leave it for two hours and then rub it until clean. Finally rinse the leather in warm, soapy water. Wring the leather in a linen cloth and dry quickly. It can also be rubbed dry and brushed until soft.

LITERBERRY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ratliff and children and Aunt Eliza Ratliff of Ashland, also David Blair of Chandler, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Litter.

Mrs. J. A. Litter made as a very pleasant call on Friday evening. Mrs. George Henderson of Virginia was in Litterberry Sunday afternoon calling on friends.

Mrs. M. O. Potefish had a birthday Wednesday and received a basketful of pretty souvenirs while the birthday treasury of the Baptist church has 43 cents added to its fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McDonald attended Rally day at the Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Ennis, Mrs. Ennis, Sr., and Miss Ethel Derry, all of Greenville, morning and visited Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ennis of Cedar Cottage.

Mrs. Lee Scribner of Broadway received a new range and it is so big they had to enlarge the doors to get it into the house. We are thinking that "Harmony Cottage" would be a good place for a hungry man to drop in for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henderson of Hill Brook are driving a new Interstate automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald and Ruth, from Jacksonville, attended Sunday school at the Baptist church Sunday.

Class No. 3 of the Baptist Sunday school, taught by Mrs. Ethel Henderson, have selected the name "Buds of Promise" for their class name.

The newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Potefish, have begun housekeeping on the corner of Pecan boulevard and Michigan avenue, and have chosen "Cherry Flat" as the name of their place. We, of North Litterberry welcome these young people as friends and neighbors and hope they will be pleased with their surroundings and satisfied with their location. Our young people gave this good couple a very flattering demonstration of their good will Saturday night.

Rally Day for the Sunday school proved to be a wet day; nevertheless there was a good attendance at the Baptist church, 137, with an offering of $4.07. We understand the Christian church will have a rally in two weeks.

We received a very cordial invitation to attend Sunday school at Grace Chapel on Rally day, but the rain kept us at home.

LAND O'NOD STORIES

THE BARBED WIRE FENCE

"Why are you so late?" asked Tinker Teedle Tee as Billy Be By Bo Bum climbed over the stump fence that separated the cow pasture from the White Forest. "You promised to meet me right after school and here it is nearly time for the sun to go to bed behind the western hills."

"I would have been here sooner but I was kept in after school," answered Billy. "I think our teacher is just too hard for everything," and he stamped his foot and pouted like the little boys who live on Grumble Corner of Grosspatch Town.

"What were you doing that she made you stay in after school?" asked Tinker, trying to look very grave, but smiling in spite of himself.

"I wasn't doing a thing, honest, I wasn't," protested Billy. But there was such a knowing twinkle in Tinker's eyes, a twinkle that said, just as plain as could be, "You can't fool me, Billy Be By Bo Bum," that Billy hastened to add:

"Well I was only talking to the boy in the seat back of me and I didn't stop when she told me to. But I don't see anything wrong in that, do you Tinker?"

"It wasn't the talking that was wrong," replied the merry little elf. "It was the fact that you didn't mind teacher, and little boys who don't mind always get in some kind of trouble."

"Oh dear, I wish I was a rabbit," grumbled Billy. "Then I could do just as I pleased."

"Yes and get caught by Slinker, the Weasel of Fleetfoot the Fox before you were a week old," retorted Tinker, beginning to get just a little bit out of patience. "A baby Bunny learns to mind his mother before he can walk, and until he is old enough to have baby bunnies of his own, he never thinks of disobeying."

"Just as soon as he is able to stand up on his wobbly little legs, Mrs. Rabbit starts to teach him the ways of the woods and the many tricks a rabbit must know to fool his enemies. First, Bunny learns to lay low and say nothing, and that is called freezing. Then he is taught the briar patch is his best friend ever ready to protect him with its thousands of sharp little thorns, and after that he learns about the barbed wire fence."

"I know all about barbed wire fences," interrupted Billy. "I tore my coat last week crawling through the one that separates the lower orchard from the meadow, but I shouldn't think they would bother Bunny."

"They don't," replied Tinker. "Not a bit of it. In fact the barbed wire fence is one of Mr. Rabbit's best friends. And that's rather funny for man is Bunny's worst enemy. Even the briar bush can't save him from guns and ferrets, and whenever Farmer Meadows comes into the White Forest, it means trouble for the Little People for if he leaves his gun at home, he is sure to bring his axe, and that means trees are to be cut down, making the woods smaller, or briar patches and hollow logs are to be cleared away. But although Farmer Meadows spoils lots of snug little hiding places, it wasn't long before Bunny discovered he had planted a new kind of briar bush—the barbed wire fence.

"But I don't see how the barbed wire fence helps Mr. Rabbit," said Billy.

Just as Tinker was about to answer, they heard old Long Ears the Hound baying off at the other side of the Woods, and the next minute Mr. Rabbit darted by like a streak of brown fur bounding over the snow. Long Ears wasn't far behind as Bunny, for he kept his nose close to the ground, except when he raised his head to sound a long wow-wow. "Come on Billy Boy," shouted Tinker, spreading his wings and darting off through the woods, and Billy followed as fast as his chubby little legs would carry him, jumping over logs and tearing through clumps of bushes until he came to the barbed wire fence separating the lower meadow from the White Forest and here Tinker stopped. Off in the field they could see Mr. Rabbit bounding along with Long Ears close behind; so close in fact that it seemed as though the hound would catch Bunny at the very next jump. But Mr. Rabbit managed to keep just a little bit ahead, and after circling the field, he made straight for the fence.

"Now we will see some fun," shouted Tinker, bumping up and down in his excitement, and the next minute Mr. Rabbit bounded through the barbed wire fence and vanished into a briar patch.

Long Ears was right behind, but he was running so fast and keeping his nose so close to the ground that he did not see the fence. So he ran smack into it, hitting the wires so hard he turned a complete somersault landing on his head in a snow drift some distance away. When he scrambled to his feet, howling with pain, Billy saw the sharp little barbs had torn his ears and pricked his sides. He never waited to see what had become of Mr. Rabbit, but putting his tail between his legs, started for home, yelping all the way.

"Now you see how the barbed wire fence helps Mr. Rabbit, don't you?" asked Tinker Teedle Tee. "It saved Bunny's life that time, as it has many times before."

THE CORN BELTER

Edited by the Department of Publications, University of Illinois.

Regular Weekly Feature of the
Jacksonville Journal.FINE LEGAL POINT IS BROUGHT UP BY FRAUDQUESTION OF LOSS DISCUSSED BY UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR.Who Must Bear the Loss When a Negotiable Instrument is Issued to an Imposter Under His Assumed
Name?—Be Wary of the Stranger.(By C. G. Vernier, Professor of Law, University of Illinois).

Few great inventions have ever been made for the benefit of mankind which are not capable of base uses. One need think only of the immoral and criminal uses to which printing, gunpowder, the telephone, the wireless, and the airplanes have been put to realize the truth of this statement. The unknown inventor of negotiable paper was certainly a world benefactor, but it was not very long before shrewd men with anti-social tendencies had seized upon this new instrument as a means for facilitating fraud and committing crime. It is the purpose of this and subsequent articles to describe some of these fraudulent and criminal schemes and to discuss in a general way the rights and liabilities of the parties involved.

It is a very common scheme for the fraudulent party to assume the name of some honest and well known man and by a pretended business dealing to induce the victim to deliver a check to the imposter payable on his face to the party whose name is assumed. The imposter then indorses it in the assumed name and sells the check to a bona fide purchaser or presents it to the bank on which it is drawn and disappears with the money.

A Typical Case.

A statement of the facts in a few typical cases will serve to show the general plan of this fraudulent scheme. X, the imposter, steals a money order payable to A. By fraud he induces B to identify him as A at the post-office. The postmaster gives X a check payable to the order of A and X obtains the money at the bank by having B again identify him as A. In another case X, the imposter, writes to A, an executor, who is seeking legacies, assuming the name of B, who is entitled to a share of the estate. The executor is convinced that the writer of the letter is the missing B, after X executes certain papers before a notary in B's name, and mails him a draft payable to B. X cashes the draft after being identified by the notary. In still other cases, the imposter secures a loan in the form of negotiable paper by assuming the name of the owner of real estate, or he sells stolen goods and receives in payment a check made payable to the assumed name.

In all these imposter cases the same problem exists—shall the loss fall on the man who drew the instrument and gave it to the imposter, or shall it fall on the man who bought it, or on the bank which cashed it, or paid it? Ordinarily no one can claim any right in a negotiable instrument where the payee's name is forged as it is here. And ordinarily a bank which pays out the money on a check with the payee's name forged cannot charge it to the depositor's account. Yet in these imposter cases, the bona fide purchaser and the bank is protected and the loss is placed on the man who drew the instrument by the overwhelming weight of authority.

Reasons for Rule.

The reasons for this rule are of sufficient interest to be worthy of statement and comment. It has been suggested that the drawer should lose because he has negligently trusted a stranger. This reason is unsatisfactory. First, because even where the drawer is careful, he is held to lose anyway; second, because practically none of the court's base their decisions on this ground; third, because the bank or purchaser may also be negligent and even if not, they are not influenced by the drawer's neglect.

It has been suggested that the drawer should lose because the payee is fictitious and hence the paper is payable to any bearer. Practically no court holds to this view, because a real payee is intended. Several courts, however, place the loss on the drawer on the theory that he is estopped to deny that the imposter is the named payee. This view is difficult to sustain, for in order that there be a real estoppel, it must appear: first, that the drawer represented that the imposter was the payee named; second, that the bank or purchaser reasonably relied on this representation; and third, that the bank or purchaser suffered as a result. The difficulty is to show reliance on a false representation. The bank or purchaser knows nothing of the original fraud and pays or buys because convinced that the imposter's endorsement is that of the named payee. No act of the drawer induces this belief. The bank usually satisfies itself on this point by requiring an identification, if the payee is known.

Should the Bank Fail.

Would the failure of the bank in these imposter cases to require unknown payees to identify themselves affect the result? Probably not. In the ordinary forgery case the bank loses no matter how careful it is. For example, if the drawer makes a check payable to the order of William Robinson, and a thief steals it, and forges Robinson's name, the bank cannot charge the check to the drawer's account, no matter how

But if the drawer voluntarily delivers a check payable to William Robinson, or order, to an imposter who has assumed the name and the bank pays it even without requiring an identification, the drawer will lose in all states except Rhode Island. Rhode Island places the loss on the bank or purchaser.

The reason given for this rule by the great majority of courts is that the real payee of the check is not the person whose name is assumed, but the imposter himself. Hence he can convey a good title to an innocent purchaser and the bank, if ignorant of the fraud, may safely pay to him or his order. Under this view the negligence of the bank is immaterial. He must bear the loss to the very person he intended the bank to pay.

In conclusion, it is therefore clear, that in the case stated, the drawer of the instrument will lose. The law is settled though there is disagreement as to the reasons underlying the rule. However, the moral is clear. When delivering a check to a stranger who claims to be some responsible party, assure yourself that he is what he claims to be, and do not rely upon your bank to protect you by discovery of the forgery.

PIMPLES AND ERUPTIONS
MEAN BAD BLOOD

People who have impure or impoverished blood should be careful to take only a vegetable and temperance remedy such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and has been for over 40 years.

The first day you start to take this reliable medicine, impure germs and accumulations begin to separate in the blood and are then expelled through the eliminative organs.

In place of the impurities, the arteries and veins gradually get fresh vitalized blood and the action of this good blood on the skin means that pimples, boils, carbuncles, eczema, rash, acne and all skin blemishes will disappear. Then you must remember that when the blood is right the liver, stomach, bowels and kidneys become healthy, active and vigorous and you will have no more trouble with indigestion, backache, headache and constipation.

Get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery today at any medicine dealer; it is a powerful blood purifier, so penetrating that it even gets at the impure deposits in the joints and carries them out of the system.

Depend upon this grand remedy to give you the kind of blood that makes the skin clear, the mind alert, the vision keener and puts ambition and energy into the entire body. You won't be disappointed. For free advice or free booklet on blood, write Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets not only the original, but the best Little Liver Pills, first put out over 40 years ago, by old Dr. R. V. Pierce, have been much imitated but never equalled, as thousands attest. They're purely vegetable, being made up of concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from the roots of American plants. Do not gripe. One or two for stomach corrective, three or four for cathartic.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take
Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

VARIOUS DRESSINGS FOR WOUNDS
CAUSED BY PRUNING THE TREES

New York Experiments Show That There is Little Use to Treat Small Wounds—White Lead Best for Large Scars.

(By G. H. Howe, in Bulletin 336,
New York Agricultural Experiment Station.)

1. Fruit growers have long used paint, tars, waxes and other substances as coverings for wounds of trees. This bulletin is a report of the effects of these various substances on wounds made on the apple and on the peach.

2. The substances used as coverings were white lead, white zinc, yellow ochre, coal tar, shellac and avarius carbolinum. The dressings of these materials were applied when the pruning was done at different seasons of the year and upon wounds of various ages.

3. In all cases undressed pruning wounds have healed more rapidly than those whose surfaces have been protected.

4. The treatment of peach tree wounds with any of the substances under experiment caused so much injury that it may be said that the wounds of the peach should never be treated with any of them and it may be inferred that this is true of wounds on trees of all stone fruits.

5. There is nothing to show in this experiment that it is worth while to treat wounds, large or small, of tree fruits with any of the substances in common use. Had there been a longer period of observation, it might have been a longer period of observation, it might have developed that the wood exposed in the larger wounds would have been somewhat saved from the decay which often sets in on exposed wood of fruit trees. It may prove to be worth while, therefore, to cover large wounds; in which case white lead is undoubtedly the best dressing to use.

Purebred Draft Mares.

"More good mares" should be the aim of every farmer of this state. Farmers who are using either grade or purebred mares find that they are making a profit and others can do the same.

For the past ten years, America has spent more than a million dollars annually in Europe for draft horses. This money will now be spent at home and American breeders will reap the benefits. Every farmer who is financially able should avail himself of this opportunity by retaining the good mares that he already has and displace the old worn out animals with productive draft mares. The day will come to an end some day, money conditions will be better and an increased demand for good draft horses at higher prices will be the result. Thousands of farm horses have been shipped abroad during the past seven months to be shot down in battle. This has caused a great reduction in our supply of horses available for farm operations. A continuous demand for heavy draft horses will be the direct result. No phase of the livestock industry will be as directly affected by the war and no branch of the business holds out more encouragement for a bright future than does the horse business. Farmers who will take advantage of this opportunity by buying purebred mares of the right sort now, instead of when the high prices come, cannot help but make a profitable investment.

So thinks Ellis McFarland, Assistant Secretary of Percheron Society of America.

Queens of the Dairy World.

During the past few years several hundred cows with yearly records have been placed in the advanced registries of the different dairy breeds. The yearly records of the production of the highest 10 cows of each of the four prominent dairy breeds show the amounts of milk and butterfat which dairy cows are capable of producing when all of the conditions approach the ideal. If only one cow had made an enormous record, she might be called an accident or freak, but since there are 4 cows that have produced over 1,000 pounds of butterfat in a year, and 25 cows that have produced over 900 pounds of butterfat, it is proof positive that these records are not accidents, but that they are due to a careful study of the cow and a skillful meeting of her needs. That great possibilities lie undeveloped in every dairyman's herd is shown by the fact that the highest 10 cows of any of the breeds have produced an average of over 6 times as much as the average production of the cows in the lowest fourth and more than 3 times as much as the average production of the best fourth of the herds on dairy farms of Illinois. In the fact that several of these large records of the high-producing dairy cows from each breed are being replaced each year with still greater ones lies their chief significance, for this shows that the highest limit of production has not yet been reached. By W. J. Fraser, in Breeder's Gazette, (Dairy Department, University of Illinois.)

Spare the Quail.

The quail has food habits which make it of especial value to the farmer who can well afford to interest himself in its protection. Not only from the hunter but from the hardships of winter. A farm with wire fences, clean cultivation and well kept orchard affords but little chance for the quails to pass successfully through severe winters. We would not be justified, of course, in making a plea for slovenly farming, but the acknowledged value of our birds on both aesthetic and economic grounds certainly calls for such intelligent action in every community where there is a scarcity of bird haunts, as shall lead to adequate provision for the planting of shrubbery and trees in suitable out of the way places in order that the public need not be deprived of such valuable assets as the birds. Prof. Frank Smith in Arbor & Bird Days Circular.

Visit of Inspection.

The latter part of April a committee from the State Legislature will probably make their usual visit of inspection to the University of Illinois.

Conference for Band Leaders.

A two or three day Conference for band leaders and members of bands who wish to broaden their knowledge of band music and acquaint themselves with organization and general betterment of bands will be held at the University of Illinois sometime during the month of May. This Conference will be held on the invitation of Mr. A. A. Harding, the leader of the University of Illinois Military Band. Announcements in regard to the exact time and program will be made later.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF LITTLE PAULINE WELCH

We had a little treasure once,
She was our joy and pride,
We loved her, ah! perhaps too well,
For soon she slept and died.
All is dark within our dwelling,
Lonely are our hearts today,
For the one we loved so dearly,
Has forever passed away.

The little crib is empty now,
The little clothes laid by;
A mother's hope, a father's joy
In death's cold arm doth lie.
Go home, little pilgrim, to thy home,
On yonder blissful shore;
We miss thee here, but soon will come
Where thou hast gone before.

Dear little hands, I miss them so!
All through the day where I go—
All through the night how lonely it seems,
For no little hands wake me out
Of my dreams.

I miss them all through the weary hours,
I miss them as others do sunshine and flowers,
Day-time or night-time wherever I go,
Dear little hands I miss them so.

Another little lamb has gone
To dwell with Him who gave;
Another little darling babe
Is sheltered in the grave.

God needed one more angel child
Amidst His shining band,
And so He bent with loving smile,
And clasped our darling's hand.
A Friend.

FROM REV. MR. DAVIS.

A letter received from the Rev. L. H. Davis states that he has reached Los Angeles, Cal., and that he and Mrs. Davis are pleasantly located there. Enroute westward they stopped at the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

Mr. Davis speaks of the Trinity Hotel, where there is a grand auditorium in which services are held on the Sabbath, and high grade concerts on week days. It has an organ costing $25,000, the finest in the city. A few days ago the Davis' took an auto ride of fifty miles through a part of the city, which implies that it is growing, and some day may have some history. They are well at present.

MONUMENT TO GRANT PROPOSED

A monument to General U. S. Grant, to be grouped with those to Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas on the capitol grounds at Springfield is one of the probable results of the preparations for the Illinois Centennial celebration.

An association to push the movement for a Grant monument has just been formed and the present Legislature will be asked to make a preliminary appropriation to start the work. A small sum will be asked to be spent for competitive designs for the proposed memorial and the fund to cover the cost of construction will be asked of the next General Assembly.

Provision already has been made for the erection of statues to Lincoln and Douglas on the capitol grounds and it is the hope of the Grant Monument Committee to add a Grant Memorial to the group. The dedication of this statutory will form one feature of the Illinois Centennial celebration in 1918.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

PROSPECTS OF A BOUNTIFUL HARVEST CAUSE DROP IN WHEAT

Market Closes Heavy at 3 to 1 Cents Net Decline—Corn and Oats Also Drop.

Chicago, May 3.—Prospects of a bountiful and early harvest, turned out to be too much of a handicap today for supporters of wheat. In consequence the market, notwithstanding a display of power to rally, closed heavy at 3 to 1 cent net decline. Corn finished 1c to 1½¢ down, oats off ½¢ to 1½¢ and provisions unchanged to 7½¢ lower.

Fairly general rains that fell over districts east of the Mississippi where drought had been threatened brought about quite a rush of selling in the wheat pit at the start. Higher quotations at Liverpool however, large export clearances and a big cut in the domestic visible supply tended to cause a rally that lasted until about the middle of the session. Then the predictions of more rain seemed to have an increasing effect on sentiment and there were signs that country holders were letting go more freely of reserve stocks. Growth conditions for wheat west of the Mississippi were said to be so nearly perfect that the crop instead of being as indicated in March three weeks later would likely be the earliest harvested in several years. This assertion was reported to cover all the territory from Texas to Missouri. Advances were that wheat was beginning to head with a bumper crop in sight.

Corn sagged more constantly than wheat. Excellent field conditions and larger receipts were chiefly responsible. Shipping demand although said to have improved somewhat was on the whole undeniably slow. Oats weakened under hedging again. Rains cast gave an additional advantage to the bears.

Sure Way To Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Corn-Had? Use "GETS-IT," It's Sure

Makes Corns Vanish Like Magic! A hard corn of skin nicks up every corn. When you put 2 drops of "GETS-IT" on it, it shrivels up and comes right off—and there's your corn—gone by thunder—simple as taking off your hat! That's Don't Waste Time "Hollering." "GETS-IT," World's Simplest Corn Cure, Never Fails.

Why corn-millions have come wild over "GETS-IT"—nothing like it ever known. Some folks, to this day, putter around with bandages, sticky tape, thick plasters, corn "pulling" salves, razor corns cut with knives, and then with scissors make them bleed and then howl because they can't get rid of sore corns. Use "GETS-IT." There's nothing to do but apply 2 drops. The work is done. "GETS-IT" does the rest. No pain, no fussing, no changing shoes, no limping. It never fails. Try it tonight for any corn, callus, wart or bunion. Be sure that you get "GETS-IT" and nothing else. "GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Germs Can't Stay With This Treatment

No Impurities Can Retain A Foothold—They're Driven Out.

The action of S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, is direct from the moment it enters the stomach. Unlike food that must be acted upon by the digestive juices, S. S. S. goes at once into the blood, and in less than five minutes has traversed the entire circulation.

It now rapidly spreads its medicinal action in the fine network of blood vessels and is like giving the blood a thorough bath, to overcome eczema, blood risings, boils and other eruptive conditions. It can not harm any part of the system. It does not lodge in the joints as do mercury, arsenic and other minerals frequently to be found in blood remedies. It is a natural medicine for the blood, just as essential to health as food, and it is the only medicine that is as nutritious food it after a spell of sickness the body calls for nourishment. Wherever you go you are sure to meet some one who used S. S. S. to its wonderful power to overcome blood troubles. You can obtain S. S. S. in almost any drug store in the U. S., a significant fact as to its worth and its sterling reputation. Get a bottle today. It will do you good. Write to The Swift Specific Co., 104 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. ### WESTERN ILLINOIS H. SCHOOL LEAGUE MEET

ENTRIES IN FOR TOURNAMENT NEXT FRIDAY.

Ten Schools Will Compete For Honors in Annual Athletic Contest to Be Held in Illinois Field, Declamation Contest Part of Program.

All the entries are in for the annual athletic meet of the Western Illinois High School League which will be held Friday. The declamation contest will be held in the morning at the David Prince school and the athletic meet will be held on Illinois field, under the management of Illinois college.

The meet promises to be an unusually fast one and the competition of the spicy variety. Barring dark horses and the unexpected it looks as though Jacksonville and Beardstown are going to fight it out for first honors. Last year White Hall was winner of the meet, but thus far they have shown no great strength. They were defeated by Jacksonville in a dual track meet held at White Hall on the 18th. Beardstown, at the Griggsville meet, clinched up on Jacksonville and the Cass county lads put up a strenuous fight for the honors in the Illinois College interscholastic meet last Saturday, falling only three points behind Jacksonville. The local school has more men practicing for each event, which goes to make up a well rounded team instead of like Beardstown, where they depend upon one individual to win first in several events.

In comparing the meets between that of Illinois College interscholastic and the Corn Belt league, better records were made in Jacksonville in every event except in the mile run. The fact that Decatur won the meet, and made such a poor showing against Springfield and Jacksonville in the recent Tri-City meet held in Springfield shows that fast men were lacking. If Springfield High had sent their first team to Bloomington they would have walked off with the honors.

The Western Illinois meet is one that is largely attended by friends of those taking part, and particularly are Jacksonville people interested in seeing the home athletes in action for the last time this year.

The business session will be held in the morning at the same time the declamation contest is being held. The business meeting promises to be a lively one as several matters of importance are to be discussed.

ADOPT NEW PLAN OF ADMINISTRATION IN JACKSONVILLE SCHOOLS

That a new position be created by the board of education, known as the Supervisor of the Grades, which means that the said supervisor is to give special attention to all subjects in the grades, except Music and Art. The teachers filling these places work together in supervising the entire work of the grades. That the Grade Supervisor be required to teach one class each semester in the high school, to be known as the Teachers' Training Class, using Psychology, Pedagogy, History of Education or such other subjects as we suggest.

We recommend that the Independence School be discontinued, thereby saving teacher's, janitor's salaries and cost of keeping up the school.

We also recommend that each ward Principal be required to teach half time and that the two substitute teachers alternate with the Principal between the 1st and 2nd wards, 3rd and 4th wards, respectively, except the Morton School building. The other substitute teacher be assigned to the David Prince and Morton School buildings.

This will give one-half day out of each school day for each ward Principal for supervision and one-half days for teaching, and we believe that this will not only result in considerable saving to the taxpayers but also in more progressive schools, because it will make the Principal more familiar with the actual work done by the teacher and create a closer tie between them.

Especially will it help the substitute teachers who will be under the special training of the Principal and when the substitutes have served their full time they will be well prepared for their regular work.

We also recommend to be discontinued, the Professional Nurse.

In conformity with the above recommendations, the Committee desires to report the following as teachers for the ensuing year with salary.
